STEVE IVY PHILATELIC AUCTIONS

INC.

Dear Friends:

The nature and complexion of the stamp business today is dramatically changing with the most notable change being the return of the "true" collector to the market in large numbers. The collector today is looking for material that is both desirable and affordable. Our Gravely Sale -Part I, containing the extensive R.P. Gravely, Jr. collection and properties from 65 other consignors, meets the needs of today's collectors.

The Gravely Sale offers excellent variety, and the material has been lotted with you, the collector, the mind. The sale begins with a wonderful offering of U.S. proofs and essays and is followed by a comprehensive offering of 19th century material. The 20th century is equally well represented, including a section of popular errors. The U.S. also features extensive sections of U.S. sheets and collections that will be of interest to the collector and dealer alike.

The British offerings in the sale are select, with particularly choice offerings of classic Canada. Throughout the foreign lots one will find key souvenir sheets from around the world and stronger country offerings of Japan and Switzerland.

Remember, not all stamp auctions are alike. Our sales are unreserved with no predetermined protective bids allowed by the owners. This means you can bid freely on the lots you want and buy them for the prices you want to pay. We provide the strongest guarantee of authenticity and description in the industry. And our catalogs are designed to offer you concise, accurate descriptions, and are accompanied by sharp full color photographs to guide you in your bidding.

We have made every effort to insure your confidence in this and all of our future sales. If there is a question you need answered or need a service provided, please feel free to telephone us on our toll-free WATS line at 1-800-527-9250.

Good luck in your bidding!

Sincerely,

The R.P. Gravely, Jr. Collections

Often, when a "name" collection is sold at auction one tends to concentrate only on the stamps in the collection rather than on the individual who formed the collection. In the case of the R.P. Gravely, Jr. collection it is difficult to disassociate the collector from his collection.

It is an honor and pleasure to have been chosen to auction the impressive Gravely collections as they are as interesting and varied as Mr. Gravely is himself. The Gravely collections consist, primarily, of two major areas, United States and the Confederate States of America. The United States, of which a large portion appears in this sale, contains extensive offerings of mint and used stamps from the 19th Century through the early 20th Century. The U.S. collection should be of particular interest to today's collector as it is most comprehensive and contains many desirable individual stamps in the affordable $100-$2,000 range.

The U.S. material also includes many separate specialized collections formed within the general collection. Mr. Gravely had a particular fondness for coil stamps and he collected them in pairs and line pairs, both mint and used, which was no small task. His collection of modern U.S. errors is one of the most significant offerings to appear on the auction market this season. It features a virtually complete offering of all existing imperforate coils, including line pairs when available. Mr. Gravely's mint sheet collection is quite extensive and features sheets as early as 1857 and finally, a comprehensive and seldom offered collection of envelope cut squares round out his specialized collections.

Mr. Gravely's collection of Confederate States material has not only great philatelic value, but it has significant historical value as well. The basis of the collection is the correspondence that was sent to Alexander H. Stephens, vice president of the Confederacy. The material not only documents Stephens' life from his college days until his death, but it also serves as a wonderful documented history of the Confederate postal system.

Literally hundreds of covers show the use of U.S. stamps in the Confederacy, manuscript paid and handstamped paid, adhesives used from scarce towns and many other categories. The C.S.A. collection is augmented with mint and used singles, blocks and some sheets, including the extraordinary and unique cross-gutter pane of 120 of the 5c Blue Lithographs (#4).

The Gravely Confederate collection, along with other C.S.A. properties will be offered as a specialized auction the first weekend of October. The Gravely collection will also be the subject of a series of original research articles which will begin to appear in the philatelic press later this spring; in order to share the interesting historical aspects contained in this philatelic property.

Mr. Gravely, 68, whose forefathers settled in the wooded rolling hills of southern Virginia prior to the Revolutionary War, began stamp collecting at age 22. A local history buff, he took an interest in the correspondence of his great-grandfather, C.Y. Thomas. Thomas, a member of the Virginia State Legislature and a staunch Unionist, was credited with using his influence to help shield his native state from many of the woes of Reconstruction. He was a prominent figure in the history of Virginia, and his correspondence was a fertile beginning for a novice collector.

"My family kept my great-grandfather's correspondence, and I started putting the items in albums," Mr. Gravely said. "The more I did it, the more I wanted to know about it (philately)."

Through reading philatelic magazines and literature, Mr. Gravely found out "there was more to it than sticking stamps in an album with paste."

He purchased most of his U.S. philatelic material at auction, and his standing rule was buy only the best condition available.

Mr. Gravely's interest in Confederate history and philately led him to join the Confederate State Alliance. A longtime member of the national group, Mr. Gravely's material has been displayed at several CSA-sponsored shows and expositions.

An enthusiastic reader, particularly of philatelic literature, Mr. Gravely urges novice collectors to study their areas of interest.

"Beginning collectors also should narrow their areas of interest, and when they buy, they should buy the best they can get," he said. "By that, I mean the best obtainable item that they can afford."

An Open Invitation

Steve Ivy Philatelic Auctions, Inc. and the Wineburgh Philatelic Research Library, located at the University of Texas at Dallas, cordially invite all patrons and friends of the library to attend a special reception and viewing of the R.P. Gravely, Jr. collection of Alexander H. Stephens Confederate material. This special reception will begin a month long exhibition of the Gravely Confederate material at the library.

The reception will be held on Saturday, April 24, 1982 between the hours of 5:30 P.M. and 7:00 P.M. Mr. Gravely will be personally attending the reception to discuss his collection and answer questions. Light refreshments will be served.

Further information and directions can be obtained by calling the Ivy offices at (214) 742-1079, or the Wineburgh Library at (214) 690-2570.

16. Notwithstanding condition 15, no lots may be returned without a written request by the successful bidder and the written approval of the auctioneer. In the unlikely event of returning a lot, the auctioneer must receive notification of bidder's intent within three (3) days of the buyer's receipt of lot. No lots may be returned for any reason whatsoever (except for reason of authenticity) after 30 days from sale date. (Lots returned must be housed intact in the original lotting sheet.) Late remittance for purchases may, at the auctioneer's option, be considered just cause to revoke all return privileges.
17. The descriptions provided in this catalog are intended solely for the use of those bidders who do not have the opportunity to view the lots prior to bidding. All bidders who have inspected the lots prior to the auction will not be granted any return privileges, except for reasons of authenticity. Bidding In An Unreserved Auction

In an unreserved auction, there are no hold or reserve bids on any lots. Each lot is sold to the highest bidder.

In bidding by mail, it is possible to purchase a stamp or cover at a price less than your maximum bid. The following is an explanation of the mail bid procedures followed by this company:

Bids are recorded as they are received. At the close of mail bidding, the highest and second highest bids are transferred to the bid book.

On the floor of the auction, bidding is opened at 5 to 10% above the second highest mail bid. This bid is submitted by our company acting on behalf of the highest mail bidder. If the auctioneer recognizes no other bids from the floor, the highest mail bidder is awarded the lot at the opening bid. If bidding proceeds from the floor, the company, acting as the mail bidder's agent, registers bids in 5 to 10% increments over the previous bid. This process is continued until the mail bidder is awarded the lot, or the next bid is higher than the mail bidder's maximum bid.

An example of this procedure is set forth under these conditions:

On lot 25, highest mail bidder submits a bid of $100, second highest mail bid is at $50. In this case, bidding on the floor starts at $55, and is bid by our company on behalf of the highest mail bidder. If no other bids are submitted by the floor, the highest mail bidder, who bid $100, has purchased the lot for $55. If other bids come from the floor, we bid for the highest mail bidder in 5 — 10% increments, as set by the auctioneer, until we reach the mail bidder's maximum bid of $100. Since bidding has passed the mail bidder's maximum, we take no other action, and the bidding continues on the floor until the final purchaser has been recognized by the auctioneer.

Using this procedure, the mail bidder retains many of the advantages of the floor bidder.

As outlined above, it is clear to see that stamps or covers can be purchased at a price less than the maximum mail bid. This method of bidding for mail bidders is followed in this and all of our auctions.

Condition

extremely fine - outstanding, the highest quality possible.

very fine - choice condition, well centered; if imperforate with four well clear margins.

fine - sound in all respects, perforations clear design; if imperforate margins may be close or touching, but will not cut design.

very good - stamps are so graded either by reason of general appearance of imperfect centering or a fault.

Any faults such as a thin spot, tear, crease, etc. will be described at all times. In larger lots, degrees of condition denote the average, and copies above and below such condition can be expected. Minor separations on blocks or sheets are the rule rather than the exception and are not grounds for the return of a lot. Regarding covers, the following are not justification for the return of a lot: torn or partially removed back flaps, light file folds which do not detract from the overall appearance and small edge tears which do not affect adhesive or markings.

Catalogs Used

The catalog numbers and catalog values of the contents of the lots, given in the descriptions, are from the Scott Standard Postage Stamp Catalogue, 1982 editions. Where, by reason of the Scott catalogue not listing items in a lot, another catalog is used, it will be named in the description of the lot.

Estimates

If an Estimated cash value is given, it is shown in the descriptions and always indicated by the abbreviation "Est." It is used where the lot is large or where the actual value has little relation to the catalog price. It is meant to represent the true market value of the lot and such figures are invariably close to actual realizations.

Follow these steps to get your stamps at your prices.

You'll find floor bidding at one of our national rare stamp auctions to be rewarding, easy and fun. You have the opportunity to buy the stamps you've been wanting – at the prices you want to pay. Plus, you have the advantage of naming your top offer. And, it's likely that you will get the stamps you want for less than your top bid.

Just follow this step-by-step guide for bidding from the floor and see if you don't agree.

1. Send for the sale catalog and first read the "Terms and Conditions of Sale," the "Key to Catalog" and the "Bidding in an Unreserved Auction" section.
2. Keeping in mind your areas of philatelic interests, review the catalog for material to fit your collection. Place a checkmark next to the lot numbers containing the stamps you want for your collection.
3. You might find several stamps that you want and you should be prepared to bid on all of them with the hope of acquiring as many as you can within your budget limitations. Mark each of these lot numbers, indicating the amount you wish to bid on each, and assign a priority to each lot. For instance, if one lot is more attractive to you than other similar lots, give it a priority #1, and so on.
4. Remember, the sale is unreserved. This means there are no hold or reserve bids on any lots; each lot is sold to the highest bidder.
5. If you wish to set a maximum spending limit, make a prominent note on your catalog or separate worksheet.
6. Allow ample time for lot viewing prior to the sale. Lot viewing times will be announced prior to the auction, and it is recommended that you take advantage of this opportunity to view the material that interests you.
7. When you enter the lot viewing area, you will be asked to fill out a bidder registration form. Be prepared to furnish basic information such as name, address and telephone number, plus bank or philatelic references, and sales tax number if applicable.
8. When you complete the registration form, you will be issued a bidder card with your bidder number on it. Keep this card for use during the auction sessions.
9. Personnel at the viewing tables will ask you to fill out a simple sheet listing the lots you wish to see. This form is to facilitate lot viewing and to insure that you get to view all of the material of interest to you.
10. While viewing the lots, you might wish to alter your previous "want" list or to modify the bids you would place for these items. Writing material will be provided.
11. If you have not registered in the lot viewing area, you may register in the auction room during the sessions.
12. Arrive at the auction room in plenty of time to find a seating area to your liking. Relax and make yourself comfortable. Refreshments and snacks will be provided.
13. Follow the auction closely and be prepared when the lots you want are offered to the floor. The auctioneer will open the lot at one raise over the second highest mail bid. Bidding increments are in 5-10 percent raises, at the auctioneer's discretion. For example, suppose your maximum bid for a stamp is $125, and the auctioneer received mail bids at $75 and $95. The auctioneer will open with $80 on behalf of the $95 mail bidder. The auctioneer will continue bidding for the high mail bidder until his $95 is exhausted and the floor takes over. You possibly could get the stamp for $100 – $25 less than your maximum bid for the lot if there is no other floor competition.
14. You may pick up and pay for your lots in the lot viewing area during the time period in which lot pick up is open. If you prefer, you will be invoiced for your lots after the sale. They will be forwarded by Registered Mail upon receipt of your funds.
15. If you don't buy anything, don't worry. Enjoy the auction. Watch the auctioneer and the bidders. It's great entertainment. Steve Ivy Philatelic Auctions, Inc. conducts four national rare stamp auctions each year. Therefore, you will have other opportunities to obtain the stamps you want at the prices you want to pay. Study and review prices realized to help you prepare for better success at future sales.

Mail bidding at our auctions saves you time and money.

For the cost of a postage stamp instead of the cost of a round-trip airplane ticket, you can bid on any stamp or lot at our auctions from the comfort and convenience of your own home. Mail bidding is challenging, rewarding and exciting!

Plus, you can buy the stamps you want, fast and easy, saving you time and money. For all these reasons and more, we believe bidding at auction by mail is one of the most outstanding privileges of modern philatelics. We think so much of this highly advantageous service that we've designed a total mail bidding program designed to give you more "on-the-scene" effectiveness than you've ever had before.

It's easy to Mail Bid at our auctions.

It's as easy as 1, 2, 3:

1. Browse through our full-color auction catalog and select the lot or lots you'd like to buy.
2. Research the going market value of each lot by checking price lists, price trends and other available data.
3. Based on this research and your desire to own the lot, determine your maximum bid.
4. Add your bids to see if the total is within your budget. If not, consider using CompuBid which is also explained in this catalog.

5. Enter your bid on the appropriate bid sheet and mail it in our special postage-paid envelope.
6. If you need assistance in determining fair stamp prices or have any questions, call us toll free at 1-800-527-9250, and we'll be happy to help.

You can buy the stamps you want at less than your top bid. Here's how it works.

Mail bidding at our auctions is just like bidding from the floor. On every lot at auction, we represent the highest mail bidder. For example, if you had bid $200 and the next highest bid was $150, we would place an initial bid for you of $160 -- an amount 5-10 percent greater than the second highest bid. If no floor bidders were to raise the bid, the lot would be yours for $160. If the bid was raised, we would continue to bid on your behalf up to your maximum bid of $200. Thus, you receive all the benefits of bidding from the floor without having to be there!

You get first-day results.

On the second day after each of our auctions, all unsuccessful mail bidders are notified. By the third day, all invoices are mailed out to the successful mail bidders.

If you haven't tried mail bidding at our auctions, try it now!

Bidding by mail in our national auctions is fun, fast, simply and rewarding. It gives you the opportunity to bid on a superlative collection of rare stamps, including many of the stamps you've been wanting most, at the price you want to pay.

CompuBid gives you more "on-the-scene" bidding clout than you ever had before.

CompuBid is a people-to-people innovation that is, by far, the most advanced and helpful method of mail bidding available in the rare stamp marketplace. No other auction company has anything that even compares with its simple sophistication and direct benefits to you.

It increases your chances of success.

CompuBid increases your chances of success over our standard mail bidding system and other conventional mail bidding systems two ways: it increases your chances of bidding on more stamps; it increases your chances of buying more of the stamps you want.

It puts you where the action is.

The action is at the auction. And CompuBid puts you there. It gives you almost all the advantages of the people attending the auction. In fact, CompuBid gives you so much flexibility, it's as if you were attending the auction in person.

It maximizes your bidding dollars.

CompuBid enables you to bid on as many stamps as you like, yet limit your total purchases to a specific amount. For example, you could bid on $25,000 worth of stamps, yet limit your total purchases to $5,000. In this example, although you get the opportunity to bid on several stamps that interest you, it is still possible to stay within your buying limits. This way, knowing that you have limited your bidding dollars to a specific amount, you can bid with more confidence and flexibility than ever before.

It evens the odds for you.

CompuBid equalizes your chances of bidding successfully against the bidders at the auction on the stamps you want to buy. For example, assume you want to buy either a mint U.S. 15c Columbian for $300 or a mint 1922 $5.00 America for $575. You would bid on both stamps in those amounts and place your bidding limit at $575. If you bought the 15c Columbian for $300, your bidding limit would be reduced to $275 ($$575 - $300 = \275), which would be your new bid on the $5.00 America. However, if you did not buy the 15c Columbian, then your bid of $575 on the $5.00 America would be accepted.

In another example, suppose you wanted to buy one mint 50c Graf Zeppelin for $300. Assume there are three similar quality Graf Zeppelins in the sale, all never hinged and very fine. You would bid $300 on all three and limit your purchase to $300. You would buy the first one to sell for $300 (or below) and the other bids would be cancelled.

It's a tested and proven success.

In more than four years of use, CompuBid has proven to be the most effective and useful auction mail bidding technique available. No other auction company has the advancements in mail bidding technology and documentation necessary to offer a service as important and historically significant as CompuBid. In fact, CompuBid is so precise that Steve Ivy Philatelic Auctions, Inc., unconditionally guarantees that you, the bidder, will not be liable for any purchase over your specified limit.

1. Name, Address, City, State, Zip

Your address is needed to mail your purchases. We need your telephone number to communicate any problems or changes that may affect your bids.

2. References

If you have not established credit with us from previous auctions, you must send a 25% deposit, or list stamp dealers with whom you have credit established.

3. Lot Numbers and Bids

List all lots you desire to purchase. On the reverse are additional columns; you may also use another sheet. Under "Amount" enter the maximum you would pay for that lot (whole dollar amounts only). We will purchase the stamp for you as much below your bid as possible.

4. Total Bid Sheet

Add up all bids and list that total in the appropriate box.

5. Indicate Your Limit

After you have totaled your bid sheet, determine how much you can budget to spend. Check the box for CompuBid, and list your spending limit.

6. Sign Your Bid Sheet

By signing the bid sheet, you have agreed to abide by the Terms of Sale listed in the auction catalog.

The Adolphus – grandest of grand hotels

Dallas' Adolphus Hotel is grander than ever before, and unsurpassed in luxury, amenities, art, food and service.

The baroque hotel's $45 million rebirth, completed in September of 1981, has made a graceful haven with Old World charm in the heart of downtown Dallas. Inside its walls guests find the rich surroundings and relaxed pace of the past. Immediately outside, they plunge into the reality of bustling Dallas, with nearby convention and market centers, fine stores, entertainment spots and sports arenas.

Adolphus Busch, the St. Louis beer baron, opened his namesake hotel in 1912. But the old Adolphus is an all-new hotel, and the reconstructed landmark is a true World Class facility; it is new with Continental richness.

Spacious and elegant guest rooms are furnished in comfortable custom-made Chippendale and Queen Anne styles. All rooms have such amenities as refrigerators, writing desks, down comforters, terry cloth bathrobes, three kinds of soaps, wastebaskets covered in fabrics used for the draperies and spreads, lacquered wood ice buckets and trays. The Adolphus has one of the most advanced emergency alert systems for your protection.

Renowned chefs, menus combining the best from both the Old and New Worlds, and dramatically varied decor characterize the hotel's three restaurants, which range in moods from French, to English to contemporary American.

Join in the auction experience in Dallas and enjoy the hospitality and luxury of The Adolphus Hotel. You may make reservations by calling Susie Brewer toll-free at 1-800-527-9250.
